Investment Banking

Nordea Investment Banking utlyser Leveraged Finance internships i Oslo og Stockholm høsten/våren 2023 og 2024!

“As an intern in Nordea’s Leveraged Finance team you will join a team of highly dedicated and experienced industry professionals. Supported by senior colleagues, you will from day one get the opportunity to solve complex financial situations as well as experience client interaction. You will assume ownership and responsibility for various key processes including the preparation of pitch material, financial modelling as well as aggregating and analysing quantitative and qualitative data.

Leveraged Finance is part of Nordea’s Investment Banking division and is responsible for originating, negotiating and executing financings for all Nordic and International Private Equity clients. Typical transactions include leveraged buyouts (LBOs), Public-to-Private (P2P) and recapitalisations.”
