

ASSOCIATE CONSULTANT INTERN
APPLICATION DEADLINE: AUGUST 13

Make your internship count

Are you a student looking to find out whether management consulting is the right career path for you? As an intern at Bain, you'll get an exclusive peek into tier-one management consulting while working on real projects for some of the most intriguing companies in the Nordics.

As you tackle complex business challenges, you'll expand your toolbox and sharpen your analytical skills. To get the most out of the internship, you'll have a support team that helps you grow and learn.

NO TWO DAYS ARE THE SAME

You'll be in the thick of it: working shoulder to shoulder with our consultants. As a crucial member of the team, you'll help gather information, analyze it and provide valuable insights to our clients. The internship will be set for 5-7 weeks internship, exact duration to be determined closer to date.

WHAT DO YOU BRING TO THE TABLE?

If you're a curious and ambitious student, we'd love to hear from you. To be eligible for the position, we'd like you to have:

- a solid team player attitude with excellent people skills
- a high level of drive
- a creative and analytical mindset
- strong academic records
- full proficiency in English (no local language requirement)

Are you ready to start a new journey and join us in 2024? Go ahead and send us your application no later than August 13 by scanning the QR code. You'll be based in Oslo but get to work on cases across the Nordics, so no local language skills required, only full proficiency in English.
