

PRIVATE EQUITY INTERNSHIP 2025

About the opportunity

Longship is seeking interns to join us full-time in Oslo for a duration of 6 – 12 months in 2025. The internship will be a great opportunity to learn about private equity while working closely with a team of experienced investment professionals at one of the most active and experienced private equity funds in the Norwegian lower middle market. You will play an important role in the team, taking responsibility across the investment life-cycle, including the deal sourcing, investment, and value creation phases.

The internship is set to commence in January 2025 and the preferred duration is 12 months. For the right candidate, we may consider starting the program at a later date and we may also be supportive in giving flexibility to e.g. apply and prepare for master's programs during the internship.

Key responsibilities

- Identifying and conducting research, valuation, and financial modelling on potential acquisition targets
- Contributing throughout the investment process (sourcing, due diligence, investment committee)
- Assisting deal teams in developing our portfolio companies across a variety of sectors and geographies
- Attending meetings with investment bankers, lawyers, consultants, and management teams

Our ideal candidate

- Has experience from previous internships in investment banking, consulting, and/or private equity (prerequisite)
- Has completed a bachelor's degree within engineering, economics or similar with a strong academic record
- Has a strong drive, excellent communication skills, a humble personality and shows great integrity
- Is a team player and has a genuine interest in business and investments
- Is fluent in Norwegian and English
- Is proficient in MS PowerPoint and Excel

How to apply

Please send your cover letter, CV and academic transcripts to recruiting@longship.no by November 10th. We advise you to submit your application as soon as possible.
